The University of Education, Winneba was established in September, 1992 as the University College of Education of Winneba (UCEW) under PNDC Law 322. UCEW brought together seven diploma awarding Colleges located in different towns under one umbrella Institution. These Colleges were the Advanced Teacher Training College, the Specialist Training College and the National Academy of Music, all in Winneba, the School of Ghana Languages in Ajumako, the College of Special Education of Akwapim-Mampong, the Advanced Technical Training College of Kumasi and the St. Andrews Agricultural Training College, Asante-Mampong. On 14th May, 2004, the University of Education Act, Act 672, was enacted to upgrade UCEW to the status of full University, as the University of Education, Winneba (UEW).
UEW has four Campuses: Winneba, Kumasi, Asante-Mampong and Ajumako. The Winneba Campus, which is the main Campus of the University, is spread over three sites (North, Central and South) within the Winneba Municipality. The Central Administration, with the seat of the Vice-Chancellor, is located at Winneba. Academic programmes in Winneba are offered in four Faculties, three Schools and one Institute, namely Faculty of Science Education, Faculty of Social Science Education, Faculty of Foreign Languages Education and Communication, Faculty of Educational Studies, School of Creative Arts, School of Business, School of Graduate Studies, and Institute for Distance and E-Learning (IDEl). The Kumasi Campus is about 320 kilometres from Winneba. It hosts the College of Technology Education with four Faculties. These are Faculty of Business Education, Faculty of Vocational Education, Faculty of Technical Education, and Faculty of Education and Communication Sciences. The Asante-Mampong Campus is situated 51 kilometres north-east of Kumasi, and it hosts the College of Agriculture Education with two Faculties, namely Faculty of Agriculture Education, and the Faculty of Science and Environment Education. The Ajumako Campus, which is 52 kilometres from Winneba, hosts the College of Languages Education, with the Faculty of Ghanaian Languages Education.

The University is a co-educational secular institution. It offers undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in fifty-two Departments under eleven Faculties, three Schools and one Institute.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

SESSIONS
A session refers to the period of studies. For example, the Full –Time and Part-Time Sessions begin in August and end in December to complete a semester. Sandwich sessions begin in July and end in August to finish a semester.

DIRECT APPLICANTS
Direct Applicants are applicants to be selected on the strength of their Senior High School results. They usually do not write the University’s Entrance Examinations except for programmes whose entry requirements so demand.

MATURE APPLICANTS
Mature Applicants are those required to pass the University’s Entrance Examinations before selection. They are applicants who are 25 years and above and who, although usually have WASSCE/SSSCE/GCE certificate, cannot obtain direct admission because they do not have the required passes. They are admitted based on their performance in the Entrance Examinations.

POST-DIPLOMA APPLICANTS
Post-Diploma Applicants are applicants who have Higher National Diploma or equivalent Tertiary Diploma Certificates. They usually seek admission to pursue degrees in their previous areas or fields of study. Post-Diploma Applicants may go through interviews before selection.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The University’s Academic Calendar begins in August and ends in May. The Academic Year is further divided into semesters - semester one and semester two. Semester one begins in August and ends in December. Semester two begins in January and ends in May. Full-Time students attend lectures from 7.30 a.m to 7:30 p.m, and Part-Time lectures start at 3:00p.m and end at 7:30p.m during weekdays. The Saturday lectures for Part-Time Students start at 8:00a.m and end at 12 noon.

PROGRAMME DURATION

Full-time Bachelor’s degree programmes have eight (8) semesters in four (4) years duration. Seven semesters are spent on campus and one (1) semester is spent outside campus in a Student Intenship Programme (SIP). The Post-Diploma Degree programmes usually have four (4) semesters in two (2) years duration. Guidance and Counselling students spend all four (4) semesters on campus.

Regular Diploma programmes usually have four (4) semesters in two years duration. They have no Student Internship Programme (SIP) component.
Part-time degree programmes involve evening lectures. Programme duration for Direct/Mature Applicants is four (4) years. Applicants with Diploma in the relevant field of study offer the Post-Diploma programme in two years.

Sandwich Programmes are organized in sessions when Regular students are on vacation, ie. July to August and December to January. A session of eight (8) weeks is equivalent to one semester. One-Year Programmes involve two July-August sessions, and two year programmes involve both July-August and December-January sessions for the first year and same for the second year.

Distance Education programmes involve bi-weekly weekend tutorials at various Study Centres across the country. Modules are used as well as Video Conferencing via Internet on Tablets provided to students by the University. Degree programmes take four years, Post-Diploma programmes take two/three years, and Diploma programmes take three years. There is also one-year Diploma in Education.
